

CAVAN EQUESTRIAN CENTRE NATIONAL STALLION PARADE & EQUINE TRADE FAIR

Saturday 9th April

Doors open @ 12noon - First Parade @ 1.30pm

Cavan Equestrian Centre are preparing for their 14th annual Stallion Parade on Saturday 9th April in conjunction with Horse Sport Ireland. This year's event will take on a more progressive format and instead of the usual evening show a full Saturday spectacular including the National Stallion Show, an Equine Trade Fair and Spot Prizes with the highlight of the event being a fantastic display by the Army Equestrian Team with Captain David O'Brien and his experienced international horses home from the Sunshine Tour.

Approximately 50 stallions will take part in this Stallion Parade of which a selection will be performing over a set of fences.

This show is a very professional display as it is a one-stop-shop for breeders and also appeals to the many horse enthusiasts and draws a massive audience. Over the last number of years the Stallion Show has attracted in excess of 1,000 people.

All stallions showing are approved by Horse Sport Ireland and Stallion Categories include;
Connemara Ponies (CP)
Registered Irish Draughts (RID)
Warm Bloods (Hols, SF, KWPN, etc.)
Irish Sport Horse (ISH)

As witnessed after the stallion parade in 2010 and as we are still in the same climate the more discerning mare owners are making a more informed and educated decision as to the stallion covering they will choose and judging from testimonials from stallion owners and their keenness to show again at Cavan it is sure to be the platform for stallion owners to exhibit their stallion.

Catalogues will be available on the day and in past years the Stallion Show catalogue has proven to be a bible for many to hold on to throughout the year and beyond as it holds all the particulars of the stallion i.e. pedigree, age, height, girth, bone, performance details and progeny. Other important information is also listed such as where the stallion is standing and a contact number. Advert space is available in the catalogue - for more information email info@cavanequestrian.com.
